Training Sessions for females' teachers

The training courses delivered by Dr. Mona Janahi entitled “The professional development of early childhood teachers in the light of contemporary trends. The aim of this course was to increase the awareness of teachers in how they can Identify the behavioral problems that children fall into at the pre-school stage, their causes, and find the best solution that can solve the problems.

expressed their gratitude for the Community Engagement and Continuing Education Centre at Gulf University for organizing such impactful and beneficial workshops.

Breast Cancer event

The Community Engagement Centre, in collaboration with SSU and the Student's Council, orchestrated a meaningful awareness event titled "Her Fight Is All of Ours." This impactful gathering, held on October 30, 2022, aimed to foster unity and raise awareness about the critical significance of early screening and detection.

Bahraini Women Day

Gulf University, represented by Prof. Mohanad Ismael Ibrahim Al Fira (President of Gulf University), Dr. Mohammed Dawwas (Director of Community Engagement Centre), Dr. Tamer Alkadash (Chair of University Research Council), and Mr. Baraa Al-samarai (Head of Admission and Registration), organized Bahraini Women's Day.

As part of the event, they chose one female student from a pool of 13 nominees to serve as the university president for a day. In addition, Prof. Dr. Mohanad Ismael Ibrahim Al Fira honored the women staff at gulf university.

The purpose of this event is to acknowledge and commend the achievements of Bahraini women in diverse fields and sectors, and to provide a platform for promoting gender equality, empowering women, and emphasizing their vital role in the development and advancement of Bahraini society, and to inspire and motivate women to persist in making substantial contributions to the nation's prosperity and progress.

CONCLUDING REMARKS

At Gulf University (GU), the aim of achieving SDG5, which focuses on Gender Equality, is actively pursued through the organization of various training sessions, workshops, and events.

One such initiative includes the conduct of training sessions specifically designed for female teachers. These sessions aim to empower and provide support to female educators, enhancing their skills and promoting gender equality within the educational system.

Furthermore, GU also organizes events like Breast Cancer Day, which raises awareness about breast cancer, its prevention, and supports those affected by the disease.

Additionally, the university takes the opportunity to celebrate Bahraini Women Day, paying tribute to the exceptional contributions made by its female staff and students at GU. In arrangement with this occasion, the university selects a commendable female student from a pool of 13 nominees, granting her the remarkable opportunity to assume the role of the university president for an entire day.

This gesture from the President serves to acknowledge and appreciate the efforts of women in various roles within the university, fostering an environment of gender equality and inclusivity.
