Faculty Representative Election

Gulf University is a strong advocate for employee rights and is committed to upholding Bahraini law in all aspects. As a reflection of this commitment, the university holds annual elections to democratically elect faculty representatives. These representatives play a crucial role in addressing and improving the conditions for faculty members within the university. By actively engaging with faculty concerns, the representatives strive to enhance the working environment and advocate for the rights and well-being of the faculty community at Gulf University.

The election, held on October 5th, 2023, involved faculty members voting to select the most suitable candidate from a pool of three contestants to serve as their representative.

Sport Day for Faculty, Staff, Students & Community

Dr. Mohammed Dawwas, representing the Community Engagement Centre, joined forces with SSU and the Student's Council to orchestrate a Sports Day at the university. The primary objective of this event was to encourage physical activity and cultivate a strong sense of community among the student body. The Sports Day offered a platform for students to participate in a wide range of sports and recreational activities, promoting a healthy and active lifestyle.

Iftar Saem in Ramadhan

Gulf University presented by Dr. Mohammed Dawwas, Dr. Rumpa Roy, Dr. Baligh Beshr, Dr. Tamer Alkadash, Dr. Walid Elfezzani, SSU, and Student's council organized a volunteer event to distribute iftar meals on Sunday 23/04/2023. This initiative aims to spread love and kindness among the community during this blessed month, and also help us build a strong relationship with the local community. The campaign was focused on bringing Iftar meals to those in need and ensuring that, irrespective of one's financial status, everyone had access to a proper and balanced meal.

Bahraini Women Day: Honoring the Women staff of GU by the President

Gulf University, represented by Prof. Mohanad Ismael Ibrahim Al Fira (President of Gulf University), Dr. Mohammed Dawwas (Director of Community Engagement Centre), Dr. Tamer Alkadash (Chair of University Research Council), and Mr. Baraa Al-samarai (Head of Admission and Registration), organized Bahraini Women's Day. As part of the event, they chose one student from a pool of 13 nominees to serve as the university president for a day.

In addition, Prof. Dr. Mohanad Ismael Ibrahim Al Fira honored the women staff at gulf university. The purpose of this event is to acknowledge and commend the achievements of Bahraini women in diverse fields and sectors, and to provide a platform for promoting gender equality, empowering women, and emphasizing their vital role in the development and advancement of Bahraini society, and to inspire and motivate women to persist in making substantial contributions to the nation's prosperity and progress.

Concluding Remarks

The Gulf University's commitment to sustainability extends to the principles of SDG8: Decent Work and Economic Growth.

The university actively engages all employee in a collaborative and participative manner. With focus on promoting inclusive and sustainable economic growth, full and productive employment, workplace health and safety and decent work for all.

GU emphasizes the need, and implements various policies that support entrepreneurship, innovation, and job creation, as well as fair and equal access to economic resources and opportunities for all without discrimination.

Gulf University strives to contribute to the promotion of decent work and economic growth, creating an environment where individuals can thrive while driving sustainable development at local and global levels.
